On Indian reservation

Two FBI agents shot to death

PINE RIDGE, S.D. (AP) — "It looked like an execution. They were riddled with bullets," South Dakota Atty. Gen. William Janklow said today after two FBI agents were shot to death on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation.

The two FBI agents were dragged out of their cars and killed Thursday when they tried to serve warrants on people who were holed up in a house, authorities said.

An Indian in the house was reported killed in an exchange of gunfire, but it was not known when he was killed.

Federal agents pursued occupants of the house through the hills of the reservation Thursday night, but at 1:30 a.m. the FBI agent in charge of the operation said the gunfire had stopped, "as far as I know."

FBI Special Agent Joseph Trimbach said his men were continuing to patrol the reservation roads, but no arrests had been made.

The house where agents Jack R. Coler and Ronald A. Williams were killed is about 5 miles southeast of the reservation community of Oglala, not far from the village of Wounded Knee which militant Indians occupied for 71 days in 1973.

Coler, 28, worked out of the Denver office of the FBI and was on special assignment to the reservation. Williams, also 28, worked out of the FBI office in Rapid City, S.D.

At the state capital in Pierre, Gov. Richard Kneip's office issued a statement saying the governor had been told the two FBI men were lured into an ambush.

The governor said the agents were "dragged out of their car and shot 15 to 20 times."

Kneip's statement also said there were unconfirmed reports that as many as 30 persons were waiting in the house when the agents arrived.

A spokesman for Kneip said the governor's statements were based on reports from authorities on the scene.

In Washington, an FBI spokesman agreed with Janklow that the agents' deaths looked like an execution. The spokesman said his reports indicated that the two agents were nearing the house when they were hit by gunfire. Then the gunmen approached the wounded agents and pumped bullets into their heads, the spokesman said.

The FBI refused to say how many agents had been sent to the scene, but Janklow, in response to a reporter's questions, said 100 men would be a conservative estimate.

FBI agents and BIA police on the reservation flushed an undetermined number of persons out of the house late Thursday night, said BIA spokesman Toby Moran. He said firing continued in the wooded, hilly terrain near the house as darkness spread over the sprawling reservation.

Moran said an FBI agent told him that one of the persons being sought had been killed.

BIA police set up roadblocks on the main roads leading to the scene of the shooting. No one was allowed into the area.

Authorities released few details about the deaths of the FBI agents.

However, Sen. James Abourezk, D-S.D., told The Associated Press the FBI told him the trouble started when the two agents attempted to serve warrants on a man wanted in connection with an alleged kidnapping.

Abourezk said the FBI told him that on Wednesday it had identified five Indians who had allegedly kidnaped a white man and his son who lived on the reservation.

The senator said the FBI also told him that there appeared to be bunkers near the house, but it was unclear whether they were man-made or natural.

A LEGAL advertisement containing names of persons appearing to be owners of unclaimed funds in Fayette County is carried on page 12 of today's Record-Herald.

Information concerning the amount of the fund and any necessary information concerning the presentment of a claim may be obtained by addressing an inquiry to the director of the Ohio Department of Commerce, unclaimed funds section, 180 E. Broad St., Columbus.

"DON'T BLOW your horn or lose your cool . . . Give all drivers a chance to become familiar with Ohio's new right turn on red law," Donald D. Cook, director of the Ohio Department of Highway Safety, advised motorists today.

The highway safety official said the new law, which becomes effective Tuesday, is designed to speed the flow of traffic and to save gasoline by eliminating unnecessary waiting at stop lights.

"Not all drivers will know about the law immediately," Cook commented, "so I ask drivers to be patient until the action becomes a reflex . . . Drivers should refrain from irritating fellow motorists by blowing horns and possibly setting the stage for an accident by increasing irritability."

Cook advised motorists to use caution in turning right on red. "Not all intersections will permit right turns on red, since municipalities have the right to post signs prohibiting such turns," he explained. "Right turns on red can be made only when no prohibitive sign is posted, and when the turning driver yields to pedestrians and cross traffic."

Churches seeking beer license

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Churches and taverns have long waged the war of the grape, but the battle of the beer has taken a new twist in Milwaukee.

Eight Roman Catholic churches have applied for unlimited beer licenses, arousing the wrath of the Wisconsin Tavernkeepers Association.

The tavernkeepers filed suit in Circuit Court against the city, the churches and Milwaukee Archbishop William Cousins to block the beer licenses.

Substitute teachers eligible for unemployment benefits

WASHINGTON (AP) — Teachers who worked as substitutes during the school year could still be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits although a special law excludes them from collecting jobless benefits during the summer.

An official with the Labor Department's Manpower Administration said Thursday that substitutes without contracts for the fall term could qualify, provided they met general state requirements for jobless benefits. Most substitutes do not work under contract.

The states generally require an individual to have worked 18 to 20 weeks to be eligible for compensation.

Fulltime teachers who were laid off from their jobs or who were not under contract for the fall term also would be eligible.

Elementary and high school teachers, administrators and researchers became eligible for jobless benefits last December when Congress extended unemployment assistance program to roughly some 12 million state and local government employees, household workers and farm workers whose jobs had not previously been covered by such laws.

This opened the possibility that teachers could collect jobless benefits between academic terms. However, that loophole was closed June 13 when President Ford signed an appropriations bill containing a provision denying such benefits during the period between school terms if teachers have contracts for both academic terms.

The bill was enacted after several states indicated they could find no provision in their own laws by which they could deny benefits during the summer months.

A spokesman for the National Education Association said teachers are eligible for benefits where school boards have held off signing new contracts for the fall term because of budget problems or where teachers were laid off.

"We've got quite a few people in those categories," an NEA spokesman said. "If they don't have a contract, then they are eligible for benefits."

Paula Welsh new county pork queen

Nineteen-year-old Paula K. Welsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Welsh, 10193 Ohio 38-N, near Bloomingburg, was crowned as the 1975 Fayette County Pork Queen Thursday night in ceremonies held at the Lafayette Inn.

Miss Welsh, a 1974 Miami Trace High School graduate, will be a sophomore this fall at Morehead (Ky.) State University, where she is majoring in agriculture. She is a member of the Morehead State University agricultural club, the Baptist Student Union choir and will become a member of the Morehead State University marching band this fall.

Miss Welsh will reign over swine judging and sale activities at the 1975 Fayette County Fair July 20-26.

Cindy David, the 1974 Fayette County Pork Queen, was present to crown the new queen.

Runnerup in the 1975 county pork queen contest was Tammy Walters, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Marcum, 4511 Miami Trace Road.

Judges for the pork queen contest were Mrs. Russell Cessna, of Springfield, membership chairman for the Ohio Porkettes organization, and Tom Boyer, of Circleville, district director for the Ohio Pork Producers Council.

Stanley Welsh served as general chairman of the pork queen committee.

NEW PORK QUEEN — Paula Welsh, left, is crowned as the 1975 Fayette County Pork Queen by Cindy David, the 1974 queen. Looking on is Tammy Walters, runnerup in the 1975 pork queen contest.

Contestants were required to present a talk, not exceeding five minutes in length, on any subject pertaining to the pork industry.

John P. Gruber, Fayette County agricultural extension agent, said the 1975 Lamb Queen contest will be held at 6:30 p.m. Monday at the Charles Wehner residence on York Road, near Greenfield.

$50 MILLION LOAN PLATEAU — Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Quigley, center, obtained the loan responsible for boosting the Federal Land Bank Association of Washington C.H. over the $50 million mark. Flanking the Quigleys, left to right, are Paul Bachman, of the Federal Land Bank district headquarters, Louisville, Ky., Norman Schiering and Gene Gustin, land bank directors here, and Ronald D. Ratliff, manager of the Washington C.H. land bank office.

Over $50 million in loan volume

Land Bank reaches milestone

The Federal Land Bank Association of Washington C.H. has reached a prominent milestone among lending institutions.

The local association, which ranks as a major source of long-term credit for more than 1,000 farmers in Fayette, Clinton and Madison counties, has reached a volume of $50 million outstanding in loans.

A dinner meeting for the purpose of celebrating the milestone was held Thursday night in the Washington Country Club.

Burdette L. Quigley, a Clinton County farmer, was the honored guest at the dinner as he was the borrower responsible for boosting the loan volume over the $50 million mark, according to Ronald D. Ratliff, manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Washington C.H.

Quigley operates a 240-acre farm near Martinsville in Southern Clinton County and his chief enterprises are corn, soybeans and hog production. Quigley purchased 158 acres of farm land which he had rented for 32 years.

Although Ratliff did not divulge the amount of the loan obtained by Quigley, he did state that the Clinton County farmer closely typified the current Federal Land Bank Association borrowers.

A handsome silver tray marking the occasion was presented to Quigley and his wife, Helen.

"Realization of the record $50 million mark is a continuation of the rapid growth that the bank has experienced in recent years," Ratliff said in commenting on the accomplishment.

"For example," Ratliff said, "at the close of business on Dec. 31, 1973, the Federal Land Bank of Washington C.H. had loans outstanding of $34.5 million."

Attainment of the $50 million mark represents an increase in the first six months of the calendar year of more than $8 million.

The local land bank association has increased in loan volume from $500,000 twenty-six years ago when the company was started by Richard Whiteside.

Whiteside, who is now president of the Huntington Bank of Washington C.H., was manager for 17 years and watched the firm grow from just a half a million dollars to $17 million (664 loans) when Ratliff took over the management duties nine years ago.

Whiteside and other commercial bankers including Harold Thompson, of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association; James Wilson, president of the Fayette County Bank, and Glenn Hemsworth, president of the First National Bank in Washington C.H., attended Thursday night's ceremonies.

Federal Land Bank Associations are divided into 12 districts nationwide. As a member of the fourth district, headquartered in Louisville, Ky., the Washington C.H. association ranks first in volume in the four-state district of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee. In the fourth district, the 76 Federal Land Bank Associations include over 46,000 member borrowers with $1.3 billion in loans outstanding.

Ratliff and other bank officials have noted that the increased loan activity of the Washington C.H. association is an indication that there is an optimistic attitude toward the future agriculture and that long-term credit, especially for the purchase of farm land, will probably continue to increase in the months and years ahead.

"The profile of our borrowers is also changing," said Ratliff. He pointed out that the average age of today's land bank borrower in the Louisville district is 42 years of age and that the average size of the land bank loan is approximately $50,000.

It was noted Wednesday night that the delinquency rate among Federal Land Bank borrowers is extremely low. The local association has only nine delinquent accounts and all are less than six months behind in payments.

The Federal Land Bank Association of Washington C.H., has been serving farmers in the three-county area for more than 50 years. Loan funds are obtained through the sale of investment bonds on the open money markets of the nation. There is no government money in the Federal Land Bank's operation, nor in any part of the nationwide Farm Credit System.

A framed proclamation from Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes designating Thursday as "Federal Land Bank Association Day" in Ohio was presented to Ratliff by Paul Bachman, president of the Federal Land Bank in Louisville, Ky.

Surgeon asks jobless pay

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Dr. P. S. Test walked into the local unemployment office and asked for compensation Wednesday after his malpractice insurance expired.

Test, a surgeon here for 20 years, said, "Filing for unemployment compensation was my wife's idea. It is a protest against the unavailability of adequate malpractice insurance, the excessive cost of what little insurance

Letters in recognition of the milestone were received by Ratliff from the governor and John M. Stackhouse, director of the Ohio Department of Agriculture.

Bachman praised Ratliff for the growth of the local association during his nine years as manager and noted that the new bank office facility, located at 402 E. Court St., is "the envy of all associations in the district."

Kenneth Probasco, a native Fayette Countyman and chairman of the Federal Farm Credit System board of directors, attended the meeting along with Ray Hickam and Cal Miller, district land bank officials from Indiana, and Mark Keith, a district director from Columbus.

All members of the Federal Land Bank Association of Washington C.H. board of directors attended. They were Gene Gustin and Norm Schiering, of Fayette County, Bernard Conway and Leslie Laird, of Madison County, and Herbert Peterson, Fred Cowman and Thomas McMillan, of Clinton County. Representatives of the land bank's sister organization, the Production Credit Association, were also in attendance.

Also attending were Press Alexander, Ircel Knedler and Martha Roberts of the Washington C.H. association staff.

is available, and the lack of legislative action to remedy the situation.

"I have paid into the state unemployment fund for years because my practice is incorporated," Test added.

Beman Pound, director of the state unemployment compensation division, was uncertain without a full investigation of Test whether he would be eligible for compensation. However, he did not rule out Test's claim.

Cincinnatians win lottery

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Cincinnati-area residents cornered the top prizes in the Ohio lottery's Buckeye 300 competition Thursday night.

Fifty-one-year-old Wilgus Fraley of Norwood walked off with the top $300,000 prize and Joel Robinson of Cincinnati won the $30,000 second prize.

Fraley, who says he just takes things "as they come," had no plans for spending his big winnings.

He said he will "see how things work out" before deciding whether to retire from his job as a General Motors Corp. welder.

He said he just might "keep on working for a little bit."

Fraley said he was divorced and has a son, Edward A. Fraley, of Newtown, and three grandchildren.

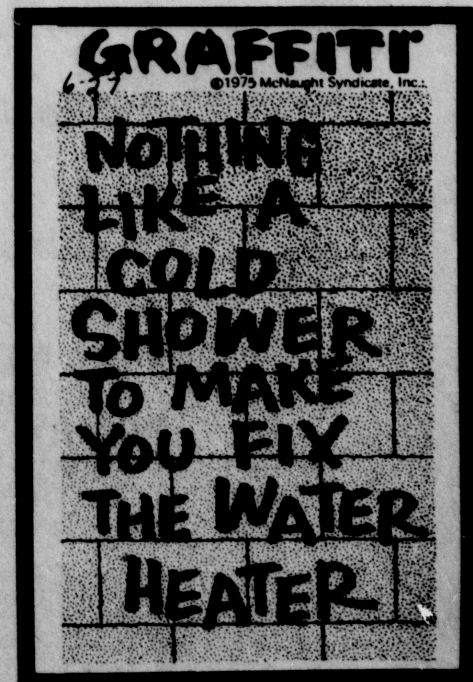

He said he doesn't have any hobbies. He used to "love to hunt, but I got shot at a couple of times, so I quit."

"I just like to loaf around and talk to my friends."

The other four contestants each took home $15,000 minimum prizes. The four included Maxine Schmitt of Wheeling, W.Va., and Ohioans John Petrek, Bedford Heights; Richard Cimachowski, Sheffield Lake; and William Ackison, Ironton.

The lottery commission said regular weekly numbers drawn Thursday night were 903 for the single set and 557 999 for the double set. The Lucky Buck numbers were 829 and 911801.

Deaths, Funerals

Mrs. Roxie C. Gray

SABINA — Services for Mrs. Roxie C. Gray, 85, of Laguna Hills, Calif., will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Littleton Funeral Home, Sabina, with the Rev. Larry Barker officiating.

A native of Clinton County, Mrs. Gray taught school in Xenia and Cleveland. She and her late husband, J. Raymond Gray, operated the antique shop until 1965 when they moved to California.

She is survived by a niece, Mrs. J.R. (Carol) Regan, Wilmington, and a nephew, William Channel, West Palm Beach, Fla. She was preceded in death by one brother.

Burial will be in Sabina Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home from 7 until 9 p.m. Friday.

George Byrd

MOUNT STERLING — George Byrd, 82, Rt. 4, London, died Friday morning in Veterans Administration Hospital, Dayton.

Born in Pike County, Mr. Byrd was a retired farmer. His wife, the former Grace Harris, died in 1960.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ben (Leora) Valentine, Rt. 4, London; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday in the Porter Funeral Home, Mount Sterling, with the Rev. Robert Wilson officiating. Burial will be in Bloomingburg Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Sunday.

Guest speaker was William B. Saxbe, U.S. ambassador to India and former Ohio senator.

Kennedy dampens supporter's hopes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy appears to have dampened the lingering hopes among some of his supporters that he would ultimately be willing to accept the 1976 Democratic presidential nomination.

Kennedy did so by spelling out more precisely than ever before his refusal to accept a 1976 presidential draft, even if it were the only way to prevent the Democrats from nominating Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace.

His statement, in response to a question during a nationally televised interview Wednesday night with CBS correspondent Walter Cronkite, comes after repeated speculation whether there were circumstances under which he might get back into the race.

Such speculation has continued despite Kennedy's statement last Sept. 23 that his decision against a 1976 race is "firm, final and unconditional" and

Office rocked by bomb blast

ALAMEDA, Calif. (AP) — An explosion shattered windows in the U.S. Bureau of Indian Affairs offices here early today shortly after an anonymous caller told a newspaper that a terrorist group would bomb the facility.

Alameda police said officers who rushed to the scene at a federal building complex near the beach here reported that several windows were blown out, but the full extent of the damage was unknown.

Capital improvements promoted

$12.7 million of it for a library.

Otherwise, Kent State University would get $12.6 million for a $6 million physical education building and other improvements; Wright State, $9.3 million, including $6.1 million for a medical sciences building; Miami University, $18.4 million, including $8 million to replace its heating plant and $6 million for a communications building, and Ohio University, $4.1 million, most of it for renovations and remodeling.

Ohio State University is in the bill for $25.8 million, including $11 million for an agricultural structure; Northeast Ohio College of Medicine, $12.7 million for a medical complex; Medical College of Ohio at Toledo, $28 million, $23.5 million of which is earmarked for a teaching hospital; Case Western Reserve University, $750,000 for a family practice unit; University of Toledo, $10.7 million, including $2.5 million to renovate University Hall and $2.2 million for an activities center, and Youngstown State, $11.5 million, including $5.7 million for a classroom and faculty office building.

Among major outlays for mental health are $1 million for the Athens Mental Health Center, $5.7 million for Cambridge State Hospital, $2 million for Cincinnati Geriatric Center, $7.5 million for Cincinnati Mental Health Center, $3.7 million for Cleveland Psychiatric Institute, $989,000 for Columbus State Hospital, $3.3 million for Dayton Mental Health Center, and $2 million for Fairview Mental Health Center.

Hawthornden State Hospital would get $3.7 million, Lima State Hospital $816,000; Longview State Hospital, $6.7 million; Massillon State Hospital $5.8 million, Tiffin State Hospital, $1.7 million, Toledo Mental Health Center, $3.6 million; Apple Creek State Institute, $3.3 million; Broadview Center, $3.7 million; Columbus State Institute, $7.8 million, and Gallipolis State Institute, $11 million, among many others.

The bill provides $24.5 million for the Department of Natural Resources, including $11 million for a lodge at Deer Creek State Park near Williamsport, in Fayette and Pickaway counties.

Ohio solons push road budget bill

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's lawmakers are expected to complete action today on a separate $731 million transportation department budget bill and then adjourn for a July 4 holiday extending to July 8.

Leaders of the Democratic assembly decided Thursday to go ahead with the break after being advised by Republican Gov. James A. Rhodes that his partial veto of the main $10.6 billion budget bill will not put the state in an immediate financial bind.

Howard L. Collier, director of the Office of Budget and Management, announced a news conference for Monday to discuss Rhodes' veto message. He said the partial veto would not necessitate interim budget measures, as Democrats had feared.

The state's two-year bookkeeping period ends at midnight Monday, and the new document must become law by that time in order for bills to be paid on time.

Collier refused to say what parts of the bill Rhodes plans to reject, but there were reports he may be ready to veto all appropriations for the second year of the 1975-1977 biennium.

The director told lawmakers earlier that the bills was about $100 million out of balance, and predicted there would be several months in the second year when the state would not be able to

Two men arrested as Soviet spies

WASHINGTON (AP) — FBI agents today arrested two men on charges of spying for the Soviet Union.

The FBI identified the two as Sarkis O. Paskalian, 36, who has been living in New York, and Sahag K. Dedeyan, 41, of Rockville, Md., a mathematician formerly employed by organizations doing secret defense work.

Both men are natives of Lebanon. Paskalian, who came to the United States in 1968, is a resident alien. Dedeyan is a naturalized citizen who held a top secret clearance.

Paskalian was charged with conspiracy to gather classified national defense information to aid a foreign country. The charge carries a maximum penalty of death.

Dedeyan was charged with failing to report the illegal photographing of national defense information, a charge carrying a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Dedeyan worked for Operations Research Inc. of Silver Spring, Md., and was an associate mathematician at the Applied Physics Laboratory of Johns Hopkins University at Silver Spring from 1966 until September 1973.

During that period, according to the FBI, Paskalian contacted Dedeyan, a distant relative.

While employed at Johns Hopkins, Dedeyan had prepared a secret study entitled "Vulnerability Analysis: U.S. Reinforcement of NATO."

The FBI alleged that Paskalian photographed the study in March 1973 at Dedeyan's Rockville home. The FBI said the camera used by Paskalian was provided by Eduard B. Charchyan, an official of the Soviet Mission to the United Nations.

The FBI said Paskalian received $1,500 from his Soviet contacts in May, 1974, and gave Dedeyan $1,000 "as a token of our appreciation."

The complaints filed against Paskalian and Dedeyan said that Paskalian was recruited as a spy in 1962 while he was in Soviet Armenia. He was sent to the United States in the summer of 1971 with instructions to meet with Petros Petrosyan, an alleged Soviet intelligence agent, in Queens, New York.

Petrosyan then instructed Paskalian to contact Dedeyan and develop a close relationship with him.

An FBI spokesman said Paskalian would be arraigned before a U.S. magistrate in New York and Dedeyan before a magistrate in Baltimore.

Ferguson seeks return of money

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Auditor Thomas E. Ferguson is seeking more than $15,000 today against 12 former state employees in connection with no-show job scandal.

Ten of the 12 pleaded guilty May 27 to misdemeanor theft charges after a Franklin County grand jury investigation into state payroll irregularities during the recount of the gubernatorial election.

Ferguson said he had also asked the attorney general for a formal opinion regarding the pay status of five former state employees who did transitional work for Lt. Gov. Richard F. Celeste after his election but before he took office.

"Examination of payrolls of the departments involved revealed attendance records for (10) employees were not adequate to reflect the particular hours of the day an employee worked," Ferguson said.

Stock list near even

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market showed some tentative and scattered gains in quiet trading today.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up 1.02 at 875.16, while gainers and losers stood about even in the over-all count on the New York Stock Exchange.

Analysts noted some possible encouragement over the outlook for short-term interest rates in weekly data from the Federal Reserve showing a drop in loan demand. But they still saw some lingering caution in the wake of the recent rise in money rates.

At the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was up .17 at 92.87.

Auto issues added to their sharp gains of Thursday, when a brokerage house analyst reportedly issued a projection of some sharp earnings rebounds in the industry next year.

The NYSE's composite index of more than 1,500 common stocks inched up .07 to 92.87.

Hunt sentence reduction nixed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt Jr. has lost an attempt to get his 2 1/2-to-8-year sentence reduced.

U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica gave no reason Thursday in refusing the petition for reduction of sentence. The petition cited Hunt's cooperation with investigators, the length of sentence and a family situation that his lawyers said "is far more serious than that of the average criminal defendant facing a prolonged period of incarceration."

Hunt, a White House employee during the administration of former President Richard M. Nixon, recruited four of the Watergate burglars who were arrested inside the Democratic party headquarters in 1972.

Flash flood hits Cincy suburbs

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Flash floods fed by a late-afternoon downpour caused more than $500,000 in damages at suburban Evendale and Sharonville Thursday, authorities said.

Hardest hit was Evendale's Northland Shopping Center, where a six foot high wall of water inundated stores and momentarily left shoppers stranded in their cars.

The stagnant weather pattern that has enveloped Ohio is to continue today, with a chance of evening showers.

The National Weather Service said temperatures will be about the same—generally in the 80s.

Somewhat drier air will be drifting over the state tonight and Saturday is expected to be mostly sunny and a little warmer. Little chance of showers was predicted for Saturday.

Fog was reported over most of the state early today with limited visibility in several areas.

Beans burned

A pot of beans left unattended on a gas stove at the Myrtle Swayne residence, 819 Sycamore St., became rather well-done at 11:30 a.m. Friday.

A neighbor telephoned the Washington C.H. Fire Department when smoke was seen coming from the Swayne household. Firemen arrived, turned off the stove and ventilated the home with smoke ejector fans. No damage was reported.

Guardsmen surprised by shots

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— Ohio National Guardsmen were as surprised as anyone that a sunny noon on May 4, 1970, was followed by a deadly clash with protestors at Kent State University, a federal jury has been told here.

Maj. Raymond Srp, then a captain in charge of Troop G, 107th Armored Cavalry, said events had quieted down that Monday after a weekend of rioting. The weekend's events included breaking windows and setting a fire in a street downtown and burning of the campus Reserve Officers Training Corps building.

"The school day was returning to normal, and we had withdrawn from certain positions," Srp said Thursday. "There was a change in attitude."

Srp said he and 1st Sgt. Myron Pryor had been discussing lunch just before the noon rally which guardsmen were ordered to disperse. The dispersal maneuver led to the gunfire some 20 minutes later that killed four students and wounded nine.

The victims and their families seek $46 million in damages from Gov. James Rhodes, three ex-state officials and 39 present and former guardsmen.

Srp had been asked how Pryor could have failed to know that guardsmen's weapons were loaded as Pryor testified here last week. Srp said Pryor might have been back at the armory in Ravenna, seeing to details such as lunch.

Srp said he had not expected the shootings and was shocked when he heard gunfire behind him on a campus slope called Blanket Hill.

The officer said he had been leading his men up the hill and was 15 yards ahead of the shooters when the shots rang out.

Testifying about physical punishment his men had taken during the weekend and on a practice football field moments before the shooting, Srp said "the situation was escalating" and that the lives of his men had been in danger at the time of the shooting.

But Srp said he did not feel his own life threatened at the time.

Just before court recessed Thursday for the weekend, former guardsman Frank Haas took the witness stand and testified he did not know where the .45-caliber pistol assigned to him was the day of the shooting.

Attorneys for the victims have sought to lay the groundwork for an attempt to prove that Pryor fired his pistol that day, despite his persistent denials over the last five years.

The FBI has reported that the weapon assigned to Pryor was not fired but that Haas's weapon was although Haas was not at the campus at the time of the shooting.

Haas told the jury of seven men and six women he asked the troop armorer for pistol No. 69 but received pistol 63 because his was not in the arms room.

Haas acknowledged that Pryor, as the unit's top noncommissioned officer, had access to the arms room and weapons records.

Bar fall brings suit

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)— A Lebanon, Ohio man filed a $55,538 suit in Warren County Common Pleas Court against a Foster, Ohio bar keeper for selling him drinks when he was intoxicated.

The suit alleged the barman was negligent in so doing because the man fell off a bar stool and suffered head injuries.

The suit, filed by Walter G. Mohrfield, 69, alleged that Dennis Plummer, owner and operator of the Miami Inn, was negligent in serving Mohrfield drinks Dec. 22, 1974 because Mohrfield was intoxicated and was known to be in that condition much of the time.

Mohrfield asked $50,000 punitive damages, $538 for medical bills, $5,000 for Mohrfield's wife Esther for loss of her husband's services and $80 in lost wages.

Jonathon Peck dead

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP)— Jonathan Peck, 30, one of five children of actor Gregory Peck, was found shot to death Thursday. Authorities said they believe he committed suicide. Peck, a reporter for a television station in nearby Santa Maria, was found in his home with a gunshot wound in his head.

Women in journalism

In a confessing mood, veteran newspapermen will admit once holding newspaperwomen in generally low esteem. In newsrooms across the land it was once the consensus that lady journalists were best relegated to handling society stuff.

The crustiest of news veterans know better now. In recent years many women have notably proved themselves as reporters capable of handling any story. Their unquestioned journalistic stature is betokened once more by the choice of Margita White as assistant presidential press secretary and director of the White House Office of Communications. It is a tough, demanding job, but there is no reason to think White will not acquit herself as well as any man.

A WORD EDGEWISE...By John P. Roche

The murderof a dictator

Attorney General Edward Levi has solemnly announced that it is unconstitutional for the President of the United States to order the death of a foreign head of state. President Ford has crossed his heart and pledged that he would never commit such a heinous deed. Discussions in Congress have all the lineaments of a pentecostal prayer meeting. But just as I am about to succumb to this wave of piety, a question jars me: Would it have been unconstitutional, immoral and generally dreadful if some American intelligence agent had put a 30-calibre slug into Hitler's skull in, say, 1937? Or into Stalin's? My hunch is that even St. Thomas Aquinas, who spent a good deal of time pondering the problem of tyrannicide, would have considered these to be Godly deeds.

Of course, none of our politicians want to be thrown out of Sunday school, but I wonder, whether, if one penetrates the fulsome rhetoric, he might discover that the objections to disposing of foreign potentates are basically prudential in character. To put it bluntly, assassination could become a growth industry. Indeed, at the risk of sounding like a professor of political theory (which I am), this was precisely the dilemma that troubled the "Angelic Doctor," Aquinas, and later Protestant theologians. Tyrannicide could not be permitted to develop into a do-it-yourself enterprise, and all sorts of elaborate restraints were formulated. However, since none of this fascinating material will be inserted into the Congressional Record, let's turn to one case of which I have some knowledge: the murder on May 31, 1961, of the Dominican dictator Rafael Leonidas Trujillo Molina. By coincidence I had dinner in San Jose, Costa Rica with Juan and Carmen Bosch a week before Tujillo was murdered on his private road to the palace. Bosch had been in exile from the Dominican Republic for some 30 years, had escaped several attempts on his life by Trujillo's gunmen (who once kidnapped an opponent on 116th St., Manhattan, shipped him to Trujillo in a private plane for prolonged torture and death).

Bosch — whose later record can be bypassed here except to note that he was not more a Communist than a Zen Buddhist (his reaction to our 1965 action was that of a frustrated de Gaulle) — was extremely gloomy. Trujillo it seemed was going to last forever. It would be fraudulent to try to recreate the exact conversation, but the gist of it was that Bosch had hoped President John Kennedy would somehow dispose of Trujillo, but he believed that the recent failure at the Bay of Pigs would probably put an end to all American action against Latin American dictatorships. There was no sympathy for Castro: Carmen Bosch was a Cuban democrat in background and despised Batista and Castro equally.

Skip now to January, 1963, when my wife and I were invited to his inauguration in Santo Domingo by the democratically elected President Juan Bosch. It was a real carnival and it would be an understatement to say that the Bosches were pro-American. When I went to see him in his office, Don Juan (as he was now respectfully called) embraced me and we had a long talk. Among the things he said (and this for obvious reasons is engraved in my memory) was "Thank God for your secret agents — they delivered the Dominican people from that monster." I didn't press for details, but, having read Bosch's detailed account of the Trujillo regime, I confess I felt that whoever was responsible for the deed deserved a medal.

The details were hardly a state secret. In fact, what surprises me is that newspapers today should be headlining matters which were public knowledge a decade ago. As Sam Halper of Time, writing in the New Leader (6-20-66) casually observed the C.I.A. "supplied the arms that gunned down Trujillo." After three days in Santo Domingo I had the outline of the scenario: The weapons were shipped in food containers to the proprietor of "Wimpy's" restaurant and hamburger stand. The shooting (or "execution" as the Dominicans called it) was handled by locals.

This brings us to the question: Did President Kennedy authorize it? If you recall that in the wake of the Bay of Pigs Attorney General Robert Kennedy practically became the Director of the C.I.A., he was probably aware of the plan. It is thus not inconceivable that he told his brother, "Jack, something is going on in the D.R. that you don't want to know about." And the President looked out the window and said, "Bob, it really is a lovely day."

Hospital cuts insurance costs

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Starting Monday Cincinnati General Hospital will discontinue malpractice coverage of its residents and interns when they moonlight in the emergency rooms of other hospitals.

Dr. Lonnie Wright, assistant director of the University of Cincinnati Medical Center, said the doctors will remain covered, however, for work they perform under supervision at General.

Dr. Wright said the outside coverage will stop Monday. He said the cost of the insurance on a 24-hour basis for the doctors is too high to continue. He declined to say how much since the matter is under consideration by the University of Cincinnati Board of Directors.

Ohio Perspective

Judge sees no laws good laws

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Judge Frederick T. Williams of Franklin County Common Pleas Court ruled that six partisan bills passed by Democratic legislators in the dying days of the administration of former Gov. John J. Gilligan could not become law.

But, he did not rule on possible procedural defects in the legislation, saying it was not necessary that he decide that question.

Republicans claimed that Democratic leaders had not fulfilled the requirement that bills must be read on three separate days in each House.

Williams, a Republican, avoided the issue, but couldn't resist offering a parenthetical comment. "The court does take note," Williams wrote in his 16-page decision, "of the astute judgment made, I believe, by Samuel Ichiye Hayakawa, former president of San Francisco State College, to the effect that for our own good there are some things in life we would better off not to see made, the most notable of which are sausages and laws."

"Dr. Hayakawa, or whoever made the observation, is, indeed, a very wise man."

Sure, you knew that masked man in the corridor of the Ohio House of Representatives outside the Speaker's office. It was the Lone Ranger, of course. Well, it was a six-foot full-color acrylic of the famous good guy astride his white horse, Silver, anyway. The Mansfield Art Center sent the airbrushed art work to the capitol as part of an exhibit. You could buy this Lone Ranger for $700 sans Tonto.

Richard Jackson, Ohio's transportation director, would appear to have more than his share of problems. The future course of his department depends on a $1.64 billion bond issue, which can be put on the November ballot only if Gov. James A. Rhodes can collect 307,000 signatures on petitions by Aug. 6.

Then voters would be asked to approve raising the seven-cent state gasoline tax by nineteenths of a cent to pay off the bonds. The department remains "basically broke" in matching available federal money, said Jackson. The overall situation is such that majority Democrats have removed the transportation budget from the major appropriations bill for separate consideration.

But, Jackson continues optimistic. "I don't have any problem with that," he tells newsmen and legislators. "Hey, I've found that tomorrow is going to come around with or without me."

Ottmar Mergenthaler, a Baltimore machinist, invented the keyboard method of typesetting, which revolutionized newspaper publishing.

Dear Abby:

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Does ring prove he popped question?

DEAR ABBY: Please give us your opinion of this very important family matter.

My mother-in-law passed away, and about two hours after the funeral services, her youngest son went to play golf. (He is 50-years-old.)

My husband, an older brother, said he was so hurt that his brother showed so little respect for their mother's memory that he will never forgive him.

What do you think?

CALIFORNIAN

DEAR CALIFORNIAN: How much respect the younger brother showed his mother while she was alive is more important than how long after the funeral he waited to play golf. Everyone handles his grief in his own way.

DEAR ABBY: About four months ago, my boyfriend asked me to marry him. He is in the service and is stationed in another state.

I have not seen him since he popped the question, so I haven't received an engagement ring yet, although we did set a date for our wedding.

A friend of mine says that a girl is not really engaged unless she has a ring. She has never had a boyfriend and seldom gets asked out, so maybe she said that out of jealousy.

Still, I would like to know for sure. Does a girl have to have a ring in order to be officially engaged?

ALMOST MARRIED

DEAR ALMOST: A girl doesn't need a ring to be officially engaged. Although you haven't seen him for four months, I presume that you are in touch with one another. Has he questioned the pop since he popped the question?

DEAR ABBY: Let me say first that I am the mother of three and happily married, and have not the slightest desire to attract any man other than my husband.

I always wear pantsuits to work because I think they are more modest than dresses. I would stop wearing makeup and shave my head if it insured keeping my male coworker's mind off my femininity and on my ability to do my job.

In other words, I do not want to be viewed as a sex object. My friends and I have adopted a poem as our slogan. It was written by a 12-year-old girl:

"Please don't walk in front of me. I may not want to follow.

Don't talk behind me.

I may not want to lead.

Please, walk beside me and be my friend."

Any man who demands that a woman display her body for him to oggle, and that she be young and have a good figure or suffer his scorn, can never be a friend.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, June 27, the 178th day of 1975. There are 187 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1950, President Harry Truman ordered the U.S. Air Force and Navy to help repel a North Korean invasion of South Korea.

On this date —

In 1844, Mormon leaders Joseph and Hyrum Smith were killed by a mob in Carthage, Ill. Brigham Young became head of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

In 1847, New York and Boston were linked by telegraph.

In 1893, prices collapsed on the New York Stock Exchange, setting off a major depression.

In 1942, the FBI disclosed the capture of eight Nazi saboteurs who had been put ashore from a submarine on New York's Long Island.

In 1943, in World War II, American bombers attacked the German-occupied city of Athens, Greece.

In 1963, President John Kennedy received an enthusiastic reception during a visit to Ireland.

Ten years ago: The government of South Africa complained about racially mixed receptions held by United States diplomats in that country.

Five years ago: Cambodia virtually abandoned its three northeastern provinces to North Vietnamese invaders.

One year ago: President Richard Nixon arrived in Moscow to begin his third summit meeting with Soviet Communist Party Leader Leonid Brezhnev.

Today's birthdays: Television actor and producer Bob Kesham is 48. Retired airline executive Juan Trippe is 76.

Thought for today: Getting married, like getting hanged, is a great deal less dreadful than it has been made out — H.L. Mencken, American writer, 1880 to 1956.

Bicentennial footnote: It was 200 years ago today, early in the American Revolution, that the Continental Congress in Philadelphia authorized an invasion of Canada if deemed necessary.

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

SATURDAY, JUNE 28

ARIES

(March 21 to April 20)

Friends may want you to go on an unexpected outing. Go along with the idea. You'll have a good time.

TAURUS

(April 21 to May 21)

This should be a stimulating day. There's a chance that you'll meet some highly interesting (and influential) persons socially.

GEMINI

(May 22 to June 21)

A splendid period for meeting up with your most interesting, energetic companions. They'll not only give you some good ideas, but a lift in morale as well.

CANCER

(June 22 to July 23)

Care advised in domestic spending. A credit arrangement could turn out to be very expensive in the long run.

Singers, 60-foot dessert slated

Jeff Church holds youth weekend

The Jeffersonville Church of Christ, located on Ohio 41-N., just north of Jeffersonville, is holding a Youth Weekend this weekend featuring a group of singers from New York and a 60-foot long banana split.

The Joy Company, a singing group from the Empire State Evangelism Association of New York, will be appearing in a one-hour program entitled, "It's happening in New York," during the church's Bible School hour at 9:30 a.m. Sunday. The group will also be providing the special music for the morning worship service.

The group, composed of three adults and 10 young people travel throughout the country during their concerts. They will be presented at the South Side Church of Christ, 921 S. Fayette St., at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

Also scheduled for the youth weekend will be a weiner roast at 7:30 p.m. Saturday and the assembling and eating of a 60-foot long banana split at 1 p.m. Sunday.

According to Richard Crabtree, minister of the church, the purpose of the weekend celebration is "to show young people that being a Christian can be fun."

Members of the church will prepare the banana split in a foil-lined, new house gutter. While the church is providing the ice cream and bananas, the topping and nuts for the dessert have been donated to the church by the Jeff Royal Blue food market in Jeffersonville.

Once the sundae has been completed, the children in attendance will be released to devour the tasty treat.

Methodists to tour

Kentucky mission

Thirty-eight members and friends of the Jeffersonville United Methodist Church, 13 E. High St., will leave Jeffersonville at 5 a.m. Saturday for a one-day trip to the Red Bird Mission in Beverly, Ky.

The mission has been sponsored by the United Methodist Church for the past 50 years and it operates several schools, clinics and a hospital.

Mrs. Clyde Rings, chairman of the Jeffersonville church committee, on Missions, made the trip arrangements. She was assisted by Eugene Griffith, pastor of the church, and Mrs. George Reedy.

The group will make a brief stop at Berea College, Ky., before traveling to Beverly. After a tour of the mission's hospital, schools, craft shop and Camp Red Bird, the group will return home by way of Renfro Valley.

St. John's Day

David E. Moore, head of the Fayette Masonic Lodge 107, has announced the organization will observe St. John's Day by attending the 10:30 a.m. worship service at Grace United Methodist Church, 301 E. Market St., Sunday.

St. John the Baptist and St. John the Evangelist are patron saints of the order and are honored each year by attending church services in June and December.

Moore emphasized that not only members of the Fayette lodge but also Masons belonging to regularly constituted lodges in the area are invited and urged to join in the observance. Members are to meet at the church at 10:15 a.m. to attend in a group.

Haithcocks observe anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Esto Haithcock Sr. of 610 McLean St., were recently honored on their 25th wedding anniversary at the All Nations Church of Christ. Hosts for the occasion were their children Mr. and Mrs. Esto Haithcock Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Collie Sr., Steven Haithcock, Miss Glenna Haithcock and Denise and Sherri Haithcock.

Mr. Haithcock and the former Evelyn Dahmer were married June 15, 1950, by the late Rev. James A. Woodfork in Bloomingburg.

Miss Glenna Haithcock presided at the guest book, when the 100 guests registered. Dinner was served and a decorated cake, with red roses and silver leaves served afterwards.

Guests came from Xenia, Greenfield, South Salem, Columbus, Orient, Cleveland, Bloomingburg and Washington C.H.

Esther Circle has guests

Eleven members of the Esther Circle of the Jeffersonville United Methodist Church and seven guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Ritenour for a picnic supper. Miss Margaret J. Binegar assisted in the hospitalities.

Mrs. Marvin Stockwell, chairman, opened the brief meeting with "Drop Everything" taken from Daily Blessings by Oral Roberts, and gave a toast to the fathers who were the guests present, from a Sermonette from the Prairie Farmer concerning Father's Day.

Miss Binegar called the roll and read the minutes; Mrs. Ralph Davidson made the treasurer's report, and Mrs. I.L. Booco reported on the flower fund, and announced she had sent cards to members for special occasions. The flower fund and 'least coin' offerings were collected.

Mrs. Stockwell closed the meeting with an Old English Prayer. Special guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. John Ritenour, Fred DeMent, William Allen and Mr. Carroll Ritenour.

Frankfort Garden Club installs officers

Fourteen members of the Frankfort Garden Club enjoyed a noonday picnic at the home of Mrs. Howard Blue, 1019 Leesburg Ave. Mrs. Blue was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Louis Clyne of Frankfort.

Members answered roll call by telling of a practical gardening hint. After a covered-dish dinner and social hour, newly-elected officers were installed by Mrs. Farrell McCollister, past president, who presented each with a potted table fern.

Officers installed were Mrs. Harold Bennett, president; Mrs. J.D. Briggs, vice president; Mrs. Arnold Melvin, secretary; Mrs. Howard Junk, treasurer; and Mrs. Wayne Morgan, assistant treasurer.

Announcements were made of the Fall Flower Show to be held at the VA Hospital, Chillicothe, Sept. 10, and of the Ross County Flower Show Aug. 6-8. Both shows are open to the public with no restrictions on exhibitors as to residence.

Mrs. Junk, newly-elected District 9 Regional Chairman of Ohio Garden Clubs, announced that the Fall Regional Meeting will be Sept. 25 at Valley House, Chillicothe.

Those present were Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Don Bowdle, Mrs. L.M. Cardwell, Mrs. Harry Clark, Mrs. Roy Clark, Mrs. Carl Edgington, Mrs. D. W. Henderson, Mrs. Junk, Mrs. McCollister, Mrs. Melvin, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Charles Orr Jr. and the hostesses.

GIRL SCOUT DAY at the Zoo will be held on Thursday, July 10. Scouts Sharon Shultz, Carla Detlor and Diane Ottolenghi pose with a donkey in the Children's Petting Zoo area. The Seal of Ohio Girl Scout Council will re-adopt Sealia the Seal in special ceremonies at 1:30 p.m.

'Girl Scout Day' proclaimed at Columbus Zoo July 10

A big day is in store for Girl Scouts when the Seal of Ohio Girl Scout Council sponsors Girl Scout Day at the Columbus Zoo on Thursday, July 10. Everyone wearing a Girl Scout pin will be admitted at special rates: 15 cents for girls 11 years old and under and 75 cents for everyone 12 and over. Hours are from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Highlight of the day will be a special ceremony to re-adopt "Sealia" the seal for the coming year. Jerry Raso of Channel 4 will host the ceremony with Mrs. Gerald Darlington, zoo docent and 50-year member of Girl Scouting, presenting the check. Sealia was adopted by the council last year for the first time and a council-wide contest was held to name her. "Niok" a movie about a boy and an elephant will be shown at 11 a.m. in the party house and Kathy Piper and her Puppets will entertain in the outdoor amphitheater at 2 p.m. Refreshments and door prizes will be given out following her show. All Scouts will be entitled to free train and boat rides (providing they are wearing their pin) and art tables will be set up around the grounds with clay and paper and crayons so that the girls can model or draw their favorite animals.

Rockwell and Girl Scout Clown Units will be on hand throughout the day. The newly dedicated pachyderm building will be open for viewing.

Ladies Aid holds meeting

"Love is a Beautiful Flower" was the opening thought presented by Mrs. Robert Bock, president of the New Martinsburg Ladies Aid when members and guests met in the home of Mrs. Oscar McCoy Thursday afternoon. Mrs. George Durnell assisted in the hospitalities.

Devotions pertaining to the theme of "Courage" were given by Mrs. Joe McClure, who also read "Psalms Acts."

Facts of the United States were made during roll call and reports were heard. Cheer cards were sent to Mrs. Edith Kennedy and Mrs. Rella Wilson. Mrs. McClure gave the program topic, "Pastoral Calling" and also conducted a Bible quiz.

Choral Society plans rehearsal

Members of the Fayette County Choral Society are reminded of the next rehearsal for 8 p.m. Monday at First Presbyterian Church. It is not too late for members to join and prepare to take part in a public appearance early in August when the group is expected to present a program of choral, vocal and organ solos, and other instrumental compositions.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kennedy and son Tommy of Meadville, Pa., have been the houseguests of her mother, Mrs. Ray Mallow of near Clarksburg. They arrived Sunday and left yesterday for their home. En route they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stevens and daughter, Ann, in Athens, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kennedy Sr., in Middleport.

Mrs. Emerson Chapman of 825 Yeoman St., and Mrs. Mabel Louis of New Holland, observed the 84th birthday of Mrs. Louis on Thursday, at a luncheon together. Mrs. Louis received 58 greeting cards wishing her "Happy Birthday."

Youth Activities

GREEN CLOVERS

The eighth meeting of the Green Clovers 4-H Club was held June 24 at Michelle Jordan's home. We talked about camp, fair booth and other things. Visiting with us from California was Vicki Grisct. We enjoyed having her. The sewing girls brought projects and discussed them with Mrs. McClish, and they practiced modeling.

The nutrition girls discussed a menu with Mrs. McClish also. Michelle Jordan and Mrs. McClish provided the refreshments. Kim Gilmore led a game.

Wouldn't you really rather have a diamond?

What will it be this year— new diamonds or a new car? Both are bought with discretionary dollars (neither are needed to keep body and soul together!) but there the similarity ends. Not only are diamonds much prettier, they will grow in value rather than depreciate. They are an eternal source of joy and pride to their owner. We'd be happy to assist you in your selection. Our integrity and competence is attested to by our membership in the American Gem Society. Now more than ever, it is important to make sensible use of your discretionary income. Now more than ever, that exquisite investment— diamonds!

Ruppert described as mentally ill

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — James U. Ruppert, accused of slaying 11 members of his family on Easter Sunday and portrayed as mentally unbalanced, envisioned death by electrocution in a dream 14 years, according to his psychiatrist.

Dr. Glenn A. Weaver of Cincinnati introduced as evidence a three-page letter written by Ruppert describing the dream.

He was one of eight psychiatrists called to sketch Ruppert's mental background as defense attorneys attempt to prove the 41-year-old unemployed draftman was innocent by reason of insanity.

The trial is currently recessed until Monday due to judicial duties of the judges.

Ruppert wrote in the letter that he "had been condemned to death for no known reason and my friends were gathered around me."

He wrote that he "pictured myself being electrocuted."

Dr. Weaver, who treated Ruppert between 1961 and 1965, interpreted

Ruppert's dream as a feeling "that death can be no worse than life that eternity might be better."

Ruppert said that when he awoke and realized he was only dreaming "I immediately fell into a very deep sadness and cried loud and very hard, begging God's forgiveness for all that I've done wrong and feeling happy that I wasn't really dying in sin."

"Although in the dream I never gave any concern to the idea of whether or not I was in sin and made no attempt to ask forgiveness," Ruppert wrote.

He said he "was happy at the thought that the end was so close; I kept thinking 'this is it' what I've waited for all my life."

Ruppert said he was not concerned about dying "since life itself is nothing to speak of."

The prosecution has charged that Ruppert planned the murders to inherit $300,000 from the estates of his deceased family.

Speaker's birthday 'celebrated'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Thursday was House Speaker Vern Riffe's 50th birthday and his colleagues made sure that the occasion was observed in proper fashion.

"He may claim to be the youngest grandfather in the state of Ohio," said Minority Leader Charles F. Kurfess in offering a congratulatory resolution, "and his youthful appearance has fooled many people into thinking that he could be Ohio's youngest representative. Well, 'whatever's fair,' the truth must be told to all. Mr. Riffe, today, has reached his fiftieth year."

Riffe, who likes to be vague about his age, at first denied everything. "I've been told many times up here that if there's one thing, I know how to do it's count," he insisted.

True enough. But the reference is to counting votes, not years.

"He has reached the pinnacle and from now on it is all down hill as the momentum of the later years begin to take their toll," Kurfess continued. "Thinning hair and fallen arches, bifocals and sagging muscles cast ominous shadows on our speaker's future. So before it is too late, let us celebrate."

The resolution was overwhelmingly approved by a rising vote. As the legislators stood, they flashed placards bearing the number 50.

Circleville names cage replacement

Circleville — The search for a successor to the Class AA Basketball Coach of the Year, John Lawhorn, has apparently ended after the Circleville School Board announced the hiring of James Bailey, 33, to head the school's cage program.

Lawhorn, who moved up to Class AAAA Warren Western Reserve High School this spring, led the Tigers to a perfect, 18-0, regular season record and to the South Central Ohio League crown.

The Board made the decision to hire Bailey after reviewing some 50 applications for the post.

The new Circleville mentor brings seven years of cage coaching experience to the Tiger's successful program.

Bailey's last assignment was at Olentangy High School where he compiled 11-9 and 11-10 marks before last seasons 11-8 record.

Bailey guided Olentangy to one Metropolitan League title and one sectional co-championship during the three year stint.

In his first coaching position, he led Ridgewood High School to a 15-3 record and to the league title.

The following two years, Bailey coached Fairbanks High School to 13-8 and 17-4 records. He then accepted the head coaching position at Crestwood High near Kent.

In his first year at Crestwood, his team compiled a 4-15 record before improving to an 8-11 mark in 1972.

Bailey graduated from Westerville High School in 1959 and from Ohio State University in 1964.

Bailey emphasizes defense in his coaching philosophy. His Theory is to keep two men on the ball and mess up the opponents game plan.

When his teams have enough quickness, Bailey said he uses a man-to-man press. Offensively, he stresses taking the good shot and the controlled fastbreak.

"We want to run a continuity offense, running the pattern until we get the open shot as close to the basket as possible," the new mentor said.

Such stressing of the game's fundamentals is similar to Lawhorn's philosophy and Bailey will have four Lawhorn-tutored lettermen back in George Moore, Brent Mancini, Biff Bumgarner and Mike McCoy.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Maligned in the off-season as "has-beens," Cincinnati's Big Red Machine is back—and getting better mileage than ever.

The Machine was dismantled by the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1974 and pronounced a declining dynasty, but the 1975 model is alive and well.

The revamped Reds, who could do little right earlier this year when they lurched to a 20-20 start, can suddenly do no wrong.

They've won 27 of 34 games since then, giving credence to club president Bob Howsam's spring training platitudes that he had assembled the best team "since I've come here."

Howsam just may be right.

"We felt last spring that we had improved ourselves overall, but we still had to prove it on the field," said Howsam as the Reds readied for a weekend series with the San Diego Padres.

Cincinnati, 7½ games back little over a month ago, has opened a four game lead over the Dodgers in the National League Western Division race.

The Reds have widened their lead despite the costly loss of ace lefthander Don Gullett, "who had developed into our stopper," according to Howsam.

Howsam credits the blazing comeback to maturity and improved depth.

"We've done two things," said Howsam. "First, we now have a solid ballplayer at every position. Moving Pete Rose to third base has made a big difference. He likes to be in the thick of things. It has given us a stronger arm in left field and allowed us to put in a big bat.

"Secondly, our pitching has been strong with Gary Nolan coming along fine and our young pitchers improving," he said.

Long known for their booming bats, the Reds are more awesome than ever at the plate.

"Five of our first eight guys are batting over .300 and our No. 8 batter has nine home runs and is hitting over .270," he said.

Howsam was referring to George Foster, who has been sensational as a parttime replacement for Rose.

Joe Morgan, one of four Cincinnati players holding leads in All-Star balloting, has taken over league leadership in batting with a .355 average.

Right fielder Ken Griffey has a .321 mark, Rose is up to .319, catcher Johnny Bench has a .306 average and centerfielder Cesar Geronimo is at an even .300.

Since Gullett broke his pitching thumb June 16, the Reds have won six of eight games. Both losses were suffered by Nolan, who had won six straight prior to the setbacks.

Meanwhile Clay Kirby, 4-3, remains sidelined with a sore shoulder.

Manager Sparky Anderson credits his young pitchers will keeping the patched-up pitching staff together.

Recently-recalled Tom Carroll has won both of his starts with exceptional outings and reliever Will McEnaney is the subject of high praise from Anderson.

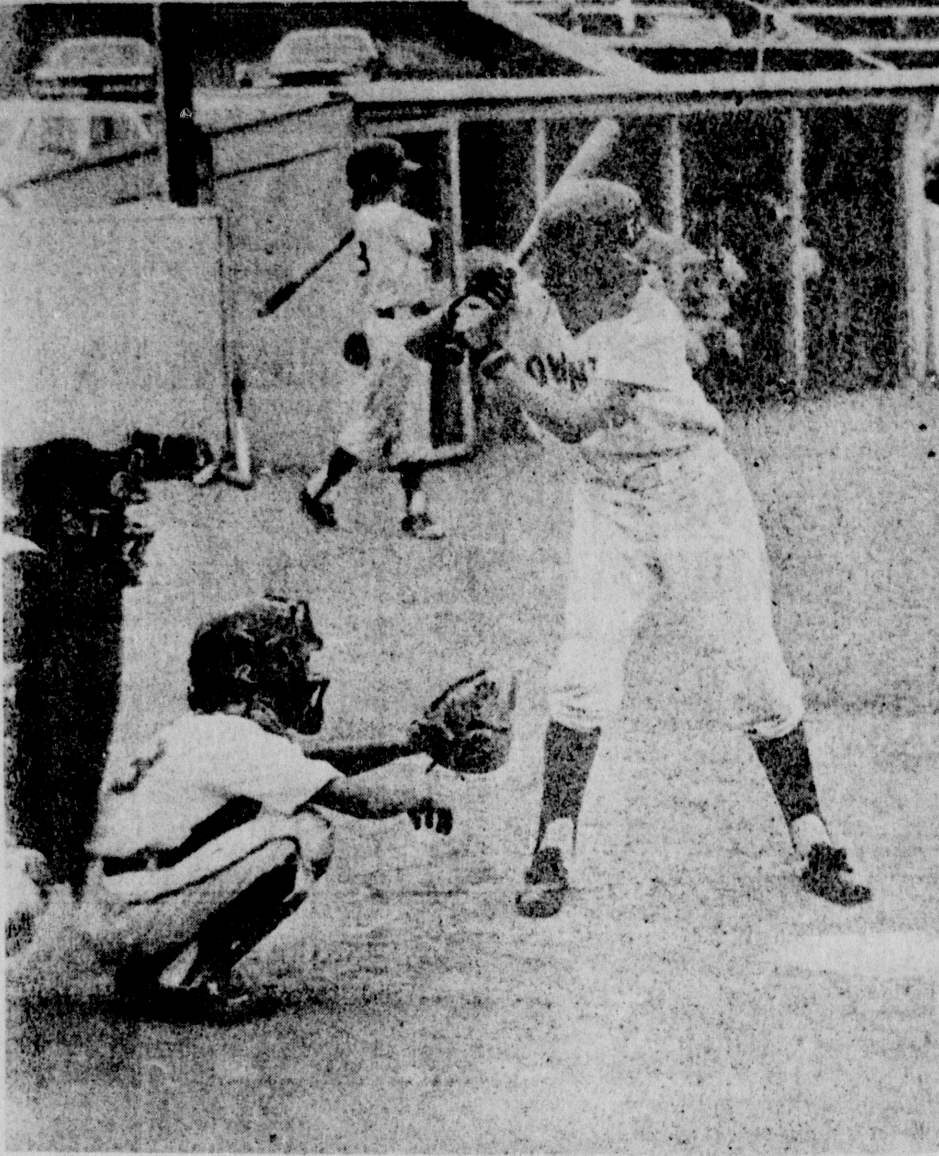

"He's been the best pitcher we've had," said Anderson. McEnaney, a lefthander, has a club-high six saves and a sterling 1.67 earned run average.

Giants 2, Dodgers 0

The Giants jumped on 11-game winner Andy Messersmith for a pair of runs in the first inning on Bobby Murcer's single and Willie Montanez' double, then Ed Halicki made the runs stand up with a fivehitter. The loss dropped the Dodgers 4½ games behind firstplace Cincinnati in the West.

Astros 8, Braves 4

While James Rodney Richard went the distance, scattering nine Atlanta hits, the Astros battered Mike Thompson and four relievers for 13 hits — three apiece by Roger Metzger and Doug Rader — and the Braves kicked in with five errors to help Houston breeze to its victory.

WAITING FOR THE PITCH — A Downtown Drug batter waits for a pitch from The Rotary Wheel's Jackie Persinger in Little League action Thursday at Wilson Field. The Wheels won the game 7-0 as Persinger tossed a two-hit shutout.

Youth league roundup

Fayette Babe Ruth

Willis Insurance scored four runs on just five hits and got a fine pitching performance from David Ross to take its second one-run decision in as many days in Babe Ruth League action.

The win upped Willis' record to 6-2 for the season as Ross struck out 15 Good Hope batters to get credit for the 4-3 win.

Gary English went two for three at the plate including a double and David Van Kyle rapped out two singles for the winners.

Combs had three hits for Good Hope and Haines connected for two doubles in the loss.

Tom Dean pitched a two-hitter and got an 11-hit support from his teammates as Craigs beat Bloomingburg 16-1 in the other Babe Ruth contest Thursday.

Dean allowed just five Bloomingburg base runners while striking out seven.

Dean Farris, Fred Jones and Dewey Foster helped Dean out in the run production department.

The win upped Craig's record to 5-3.

Jeff Babe Ruth

The Jeff Merchants lost thier first game of the season Thursday night as South Charleston scored three runs in the third frame to hold on for a 6-4 victory.

Ben Allen took the loss which was also his first of the season giving up six runs on six hits and striking out four. Jeff Cook doubled for the Merchants and Henderson led the South Charleston hitting attack with a double and a single.

McKee got credit for the win giving up two runs on three hits.

The Merchants next game is scheduled for Sunday at home against Springfield.

WCH Little League

The Mustangers put seven runs on the board before the Jets could push a runner across the plate and held on for a 10-4 Major League win Thursday at Wilson Field.

Norman Melvin got credit for the win and Jim Conley blasted a home run.

In the other major League contest, the Rotary Wheels got a two hit performance from Jackie Persinger and doubles from Brian Dodds, Todd English and Frank Free to post a 7-0 win over Downtown Drug.

Dean Wright got the loss. Helfrich easily handled the Jr. Firemen, 24-15, and First Federal stopped Bumgarner's 15-3, in Minor League action.

Stop sign removed; two men injured

Vandalism blamed for rural crash

Vandalism was directly responsible for a Rio Grande man being admitted to Fayette Memorial Hospital from injuries received in a two-car collision at 6:22 p.m. Thursday.

Fayette County Sheriff's deputies reported Dale Dodson, 35, Rio Grande, avoided the stop sign at the intersection of U.S. 62-S and Greenfield-Sabina Road because the stop sign had been removed. Only the post stood at the intersection. The sign had been stolen. A car driven by Martin O'Cull, 63, Stuckey Road, traveling on U.S. 62 and having the right of way collided with Dodson and both drivers were injured and taken to the hospital by ambulance. O'Cull was treated for pain in the left side of his chest and scratches and then released, and Dodson was admitted for injury to the left side of his back and multiple abrasion. He is presently reported in fair condition by hospital officials. Both autos were severely damaged.

Additional traffic mishaps reported by sheriff's deputies and Washington CH. police included:

Shoplifting charges filed

Two Wilmington women were apprehended at Seaway, 1270 Clinton Ave., at 3:10 p.m. Thursday and charged with shoplifting by Fayette County Sheriff's deputies.

Linda L. Macke, 28, allegedly stole a 79-cent nameplate and a pack of batteries, and Janet R. Fouse, 47, allegedly stole a pet flea and tick collar. Both ladies had been released on $1,000 bond apiece.

Sheriff's deputies also reported a stolen bicycle and a recovered bicycle, along with incidents of wind damage Thursday afternoon in the county. Washington C.H. police reported a bike larceny.

A 26-inch tan bicycle with chrome wheels, belonging to Otho Bennett, South Solon, was stolen from the Octa-Allen Road vicinity at 9:15 a.m. Wednesday, sheriff's deputies reported.

A maroon 26-inch bicycle was recovered by sheriff's deputies on Lewis Road in the vicinity of the first bridge, at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Strong winds were responsible for property damage in the southwest corner of Fayette County at 4:30 p.m. Thursday. Sheriff's deputies reported winds ripped along U.S. 62 at Patton Road, along Patton Road and across Stafford Road near New Martinsburg. Trees were damaged, telephone and electric lines were blown down and one home incurred damage to the patio area.

A 10-speed bicycle owned by James Hunter, valued at $82.88 was stolen from the breezeway area of his 507 W. Elm St. home sometime Wednesday, according to city police.

Brown supports WPAFB outlays

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Clarence J. Brown, R-Ohio, has urged that an appropriation of $5.36 million for a logistics management facility be added to the fiscal 1976 military construction program at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, Ohio.

Brown of Springfield, Ohio, testified Thursday before the military construction subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee.

Brown said the proposal for a new headquarters facility to replace a deteriorated structure was authorized by Congress in December 1974, but was denied appropriation in the fiscal 1975 program.

Trash fire checked

A trash fire at 401 E. Elm Street was reported to the Washington Fire Department at 5:15 p.m. Thursday.

Assistant fire chief John Rockhold and fireman Dan Fowler were dispatched to the scene where they informed Richard Allen of the city's open burning ordinance.

SHERIFF

SATURDAY, 11:22 a.m. — A trailer loaded with hay bales, pulled by a truck driven by Walter D. Aills, 44, of 1218 Rawlings St., upset while passing a tractor on Ford Road, seven-tenths of a mile from the U.S. 35 intersection. The hay bales spilled against a fence belonging to Rosecoe Haines, 1979 Bloomingburg-New Holland Road, damaging it.

POLICE

FRIDAY, 12:12 a.m. — An accident in Hidy Foods parking lot on Columbus Avenue involved cars driven by Leah J. Nash, 18, of 401 E. Elm St., and Kevin D. Ramey, 17, of 533 Frank St.

THURSDAY, 10:10 p.m. — A car driven by Mary E. Krieger, 18, of 186 Eastview Dr., backed into a parked car belonging to Richard R. Witherspoon, 726 Yeoman St., while Ms. Krieger was pulling from her driveway. Damage was minor.

9:49 p.m. — A car belonging to Tessa Tate, 57, Hawthorne Dr., was sideswiped by an unidentified driver while parked in front of the Elm Street Market. Police are investigating.

11:32 a.m. — A car driven by Joseph A. Carson, 18, of 931 Gromley Rd. backed into a car driven by Elma M. Baughn, 53, of 931 S. Fayette St., on Hinde Street near the intersection of the Penn Central railroad tracks. Carson was cited by city police for backing without safety.

Plan urged to promote soybeans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz has proposed to Brazilian officials that they join the United States in forming an international soybean-promotion program.

The 10-million-ton soybean production boost in that South American country, which Butz recently visited, has concerned American soybean producers for months.

The economic threat from those Brazilian fields earlier this year resulted in arguments for inclusion of a soybean loan program in the farm bill, which was vetoed by President Ford.

But, Butz told reporters Thursday, "there's no way to slow them down (in soybean production), nor should we If Brazil, I'd be doing the same thing."

So a joint promotion venture, like those for cotton and wheat worldwide, seemed the best approach, he said. "There's no need for this to be a point of conflict."

The proposal, which he said he had not yet discussed with U.S. soybean tradesmen, "fell on receptive ears" in Brazil, Butz said.

Brazil's sugar and coffee industries drew many more dollars from this country last year than U.S. farm products generated there.

Ball State U official killed

DETROIT (AP) — A Ball State University official, his wife and another central Indiana couple died Thursday when a light plane crashed in flames in a Detroit alley.

The president of the flying club that owned the plane identified those aboard as Joseph B. White, 42, Muncie; his wife, Jane; Herbert Oren Jr., 48, Parker, and his wife, Nellie, 45.

White was assistant placement director at Ball State where he had worked since 1965. Oren was employed at Warner Gear in Muncie.

Traffic Court

Three persons were fined Thursday on traffic charges in Washington C.H. Municipal Court by Judge Reed M. Winegardner.

Sheridan R. Smith, 19, Jeffersonville, and Willard L. Sims, 25, of 1213 E. Paint St., were each fined $50 when they pleaded guilty to charges of reckless operation.

Also fined was Joseph A. Carson, 18, Rt. 1, $25 after he pleaded guilty to backing without safety.

Four other traffic defendants forfeited bonds for failure to appear before Judge Winegardner. They were Gerald Dunn, 53, Ohio 207-N, $25, failure to maintain an assured clear distance ahead; Beatrice E. Howard, 24, Jeffersonville, $25, failure to drive on the right half of the roadway; Harold W. Colaw, 26, Bloomingburg, $25, failure to drive on the right half of the roadway; and Timmy L. Bryant, 19, Bloomingburg, $18, disobeyed a stop sign.

Bond forfeited

Washington C.H. municipal Court Judge Reed M. Winegardner presided over a very light session Thursday as only one case was aired resulting in a bond forfeiture.

Flint Fitzpatrick, 18, Milledgeville, forfeited $25 bond for failure to appear in court on a charge of possessing a raccoon out of season, filed by state game protector Jerry F. Cremeans.
